

Joshua & Co. // Week 1

Discussion Guide

SERIES OVERVIEW

What seems impossible, is only an opportunity in the eyes of God. Life lessons from the Book of Joshua.

BIG IDEA

“Two against Ten” - While the other ten men who explored the Promised Land gave a negative report, Joshua and Caleb were resolute that with God they can face whatever stands before them. By faith, we learn to trust His promises when the plan doesn't always make sense.

ICEBREAKER/CHECK-IN QUESTION(S)

- Share one highlight from your life this past week.
- If you could be transported back in time so that you could witness ANY biblical event, which would it be and why?

DISCUSS

- What one thought or take-away you have from the message?
- Have you ever been in a situation where your perspective was different from those around you? How did you handle it?

READ NUMBERS 13:25-14:4

- How did the perspective of Caleb and Joshua differ from that of the other spies and what can we learn from their example?
- How do you think the Israelites' lack of faith in God's ability to help them conquer the land of Canaan was influenced by their perspective?
- What lessons can we learn from the 12 spies about the importance of perspective in leadership and decision-making?
- How can we learn to recognize and overcome negative thought patterns that might be limiting our perspective and potential in our own spiritual lives?

READ NUMBERS 14:6-9

- How can we be better at shutting out the loud voices that are discouraging us or attempting to drown out the voice of God in our lives? How can we support each other?

PRAY

God, shape our perspective. When we are up against it, facing some circumstances and giants in our life, may we see them ALL through the lens of your promises. May we choose the lens of Faith. May your voice be the loudest in hearts!
